

View of new kitchen

View of new deck railing

Russel Residence Ellicott City, MD

Project:

Design an addition with basement to a ranch type building with basement. The addition is to connect to the kitchen and provide space for an informal dining room. Other program items were the addition of a deck, the redesign of the front entry and the conversion of a carport into a two car garage.

Services:

Design, construction documents, construction administration

Rear view before

Rear view after

Front entry before

Front entry after